

OLD TESTAMENT BIBLE STORIES

BOOK I

(For Beginners)

FROM CREATION TO SAUL

REV. C. HANKO

Adopted for use in the Protestant Reformed Churches
by the Synod of 1961

PREFACE

This is the first in a series of three books which treat the history of the Bible in story form for children from the ages of six to eight years. This first book covers the history from creation through the judges.

Each lesson covers a certain phase of history and touches only some outstanding event or events. The teacher in the classroom will determine how much other material should be introduced in the discussion, but it should be borne in mind that children grasp the history best when their attention is focused on but one or two outstanding incidents.

May our heavenly Father bless our covenant seed through these means, in order that the truth of His Word may be preserved in their hearts and passed on to the generations to come, unto the glory of His Name.

LESSON 1

Creation

Genesis 1

1. Who is your Creator?
God.
2. How many Gods are there?
There is only one God.

OLD TESTAMENT BIBLE STORIES

BOOK II

(For Beginners)

FROM SAUL TO THE RETURN FROM CAPTIVITY

REV. C. HANKO

Adopted for use in the Protestant Reformed Churches
by the Synod of 1961

PREFACE

This is the second in a series of three books which treat the history of the Bible for children from the ages of six to eight years. This second book treats the history from the beginning of Saul's reign to the return of the Jews from captivity.

The teacher will notice that generally only one or two events are treated in each lesson, rather than the many details. The teacher will use his own discretion in determining how much other material should be included in the discussion in the classroom.

May our God use these means to realize His promise among us that He will be our God and the God of our seed forever. That is our sincere prayer and also our blessed confidence.

LESSON 1

Saul

I Samuel 10-15, 28, 30

1. Why did the people want a king?

NEW TESTAMENT BIBLE STORIES

BOOK III

(For Beginners)

REV. C. HANKO

Adopted for use in the Protestant Reformed Churches
by the Synod of 1961

PREFACE

This is the last in the series of three books treating the stories of the Bible for children from the ages of six to eight years. The first two books covered the history found in the Old Testament, while this book treats the history recorded in the New Testament.

As much as possible the same lesson divisions are used in this book as in the New Testament for Juniors, so that both of these books can be used in one class, if the age range should require this.

Each lesson treats only a certain phase of the history rather than entering into detail on all the events. The teacher should use his own discretion in determining how much other material should be included in the discussions in the classroom.

May our covenant God use this material for the instruction and spiritual edification of our covenant children. In Him alone is our expectation.
